12.5. Cancellation of Exhibition by Exhibitor

- (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Exhibitor may, by email to Us, cancel its Exhibition for any reason at any time, up to the date that is 30 days before the commencement of the Event (but not later), whereupon:

For the avoidance of doubt, the Exhibitor may not cancel its Exhibition, other than for Force Majeure, after the date that is 30 days before the commencement of the Event and the Exhibitor must pay the Exhibition Fee in full and no refund will be given.

(b) For the purposes of this clause 12.5(b):

- (i) “Force Majeure” includes (but only if it has a Relevant Effect), war, civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, strikes and lock-outs, natural disasters (whether naturally occurring or caused by human act or omission) including fire, flood and storm, volcanic or seismic activity, power and communication outages, and any declared public health emergency, epidemic or pandemic (including COVID-19); and
- (ii) “Relevant Effect” means that the Force Majeure has (or will, with reasonable certainty, have) the direct effect of making it unlawful or practically impossible for the Exhibitor to install or have the Exhibition installed, or from operating or “manning” the Exhibition during the Event.

If Force Majeure occurs, the Exhibitor may, at any time before the commencement of the Event, notify Us that the Exhibitor wishes to cancel its Exhibition, giving particulars of the Force Majeure circumstances and the Relevant Effects (a “Force Majeure Cancellation Notice”). Upon receipt of a Force Majeure Cancellation Notice, We will consider it in good faith and if, acting reasonably, We accept the particulars given, We will refund Exhibition Fees We have received under this Agreement, less a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) including GST, to cover administration and other costs.

13. VARIATION AND POSTPONEMENT OF EVENT

13.1. We may vary the Event

14.1. Our rights

- (d) recover all costs of exercising Our rights under this clause, including removal and storage costs actually incurred and legal costs and disbursements, on a full indemnity basis.

The exercise of a remedy under this clause is not Our exclusive remedy and We may exercise any other remedy available to Us under this Agreement or under the law.

15.1. Termination for cause - general

A party to this Agreement (the “Terminating Party”) may, at its option, by written notice to the other party, terminate this Agreement with immediate effect if:

- (a) the other party is subject to an Insolvency Event;
- (b) the other party commits a breach of any term or warranty of this Agreement which is capable of rectification but is not rectified to the reasonable satisfaction of the Terminating Party within 7 days, or such lesser reasonable period, given the proximity of the breach to the Event date(s), after receipt of a notice by the Terminating Party specifying the breach, or
- (c) the other party commits a breach of any term or warranty of this Agreement which is not capable of rectification in the reasonable opinion of the Terminating Party.

15.3. Sole rights of termination

The rights of termination in this clause 15 and otherwise expressly set out in this Agreement are the sole rights of termination exercisable by the parties, but in all other respects the common law rights and remedies of the parties are preserved. - (b) (b) any loss or liability We incur to the Venue operator or any other third party, as a direct or indirect consequence of any negligence or other tort, breach of statutory duty, or breach of this Agreement or of the Venue Rules by the Exhibitor or any Relevant Person, is a reasonably foreseeable loss recoverable by Us from the Exhibitor.

17. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

17.1. No transfer of Intellectual Property

Nothing in this Agreement constitutes a transfer of any Intellectual Property of a party to the other party. The rights conferred on each party to use the Intellectual Property of the other party rest in contract only.
